

Digital Content Forum

Contributed by Administrator
Wednesday, 29 August 2007
Last Updated Thursday, 30 August 2007

The Digital Content ForumThe Digital Content Forum is a group of organisations representing the UK's highly competitive digital media sector. We promote cross-sector knowledge-sharing and best practice, and work on our members' behalf on key legislative and commercial issues such as digital convergence, government information and intellectual property.www.dcf.org.uk